Mrs. George R. Williams and a woman friend, after shopping in Montclair last Saturday, drove Mountain. On the summit two Italians sprang into struck the horse with the whip, the horse sprang forward and the Italians were thrown down. Mrs. Williams' friend, a school-teacher from Verona, screamed and sprang from the carriage. She sprained her ankle. The Italians escaped capture.

Terminer, Newark, yesterday. The woman's head was nearly all shot away, Hermes having held a done on the night of June 16 last, after the husband and wife had a quarrel, in the presence of their children. After several witnesses, Hermes, the prisoner, was called to the witness stand. He said he was thirty-five years old. His story was that he brought home some roses for his wife, but she would not smell the flowers. He went upstairs to get the gun to take it out with him for hunting. He left it against the kitchen wall, and when his wife continued to scold he picked the gun up and said, jokingly, that he would shoot her. The gun exploded. Hermes swore emphatically that he did not intend to shoot his wife.

Thomas E. Welch, millwright, employed by the Manhattan Rubber Company in that capacity in their factory in Passaic, met with an accident yesterday morning which cost him an arm and may cost him his life. He was engaged in putting a shafting and pulley were in motion. His sleeve Walch's arm was drawn into the shafting. The man was jerked upward and brought up against the slating and then whitled over it. As he was thrown over his arm was jerked from the socket and the flesh parted at the shoulder. The body was thrown to the floor with great force and Welch sustained injuries from which he may die. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital.

is a High Churchman, and his ritualistic tenden cies gave offence to a large majority of his parishioners, some of them charging that he was "no better than a Roman Catholic priest in disguise." On Sunday night Mr. Mead preached his farewell sermon. He defended his High Church views, and prayer-book, as it was misleading. The book itself taught Catholic doctrine. In his opinion, the Episcopal Church was a Catholic Church, and ought to be called either the "American Catholic Church" or the "Catholic Church in the United States." The name of the Church, he thought, should be indicative of its character.
